Teaching Assistants and HLTAs: Interested in Global Citizenship?

Invitation to join the 3rd Global Citizenship course

This unique Global Citizenship course is designed to enable TAs and HLTAs to plan, promote and deliver Global Citizenship in their schools. The training will provide understanding of Global Citizenship, experience of practical activities, information about resources and further support.

The training will consist of three morning, half day sessions over six months. The total cost will be £120 per person (for three sessions). The sessions will cover:

- GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP and its contribution to achieving EVERY CHILD MATTERS
- MULTI-CULTURAL BRITAIN and Community Cohesion
- SCHOOL AWARDS - celebrating school's achievements with the Global Dimension and Global Citizenship

Weds 6 October 2010, 9am-12 noon: Global Citizenship and the Millennium Development Goals

Weds 24 November 2010, 9am-12 noon: Celebrating multi-cultural Britain and community cohesion

Weds 19 January 2011, 9am-12 noon: Whole School Awards: Fairtrade, International Schools and Unicef's Rights Respecting Schools.

Each workshop will run in all 3 venues: The Global Centre in Exeter, GLADE Centre in Ilminster and DEED Centre in Poole.

The first 2 courses have been very successful

- ❖ A very informative morning ❖ A well planned and conceived programme ❖
- ❖ It has totally inspired me ❖ Good, healthy discussions - listening to others' opinions ❖
- ❖ So pleased to have pestered my head teacher to let me come on this course! ❖
